Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the pre-amendment filed 11/20/03 in which claims 1-12 were canceled and claims 13-20 were added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 13-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Nambudiri et al, US Patent No. 6,640,214.

Nambudiri et al disclose a portable electronic terminal and data processing system comprising: a location detector which detects location of the portable 40 terminal (to identify and detect whether the portable terminal is in drug store, grocery store, or flower shop, etc.) and stores location information; a memory 46 which stores card information; and a transmitter 50 which transmits the location information and the card information stored by the memory (see figure 1).

Re claim 14, the transceiver 50 inherently includes a receiver for receiving information whether the card use is allowed (credit card or debit card). (see col. 7, line 35+).

Re claim 15, settlement information is communicated between the portable terminal and external terminals for settling credit/debit card transactions.

Re claim 16, once the location of the terminal is detected, the latitude and longitude information is inherently included in the information.

The limitations of claims 17-19 have been met above.

Re claim 20, the transaction information is bill (bill for items purchased).

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Jelen et al, US Patent No. 6,119,935, disclose a shopping cart mounted portable data collection device with tethered dataform reader. O'Hagan et al, US Patent No. 6,595,417, disclose an electronic shopping .
